Marked preference amongst customers to use digital mediums for Friction free, dependable and consistent execution of financial transactions.

While technology driven transaction interfaces is the stated ask, the underlying driving need is the confidence that banking transactions will get executed in a consistently friction free, hassle-free manner, Anytime Anywhere.

Should the digital mediums fall short, customers demand that the physical channels (RMs, branch, customer support, customer service) should seamlessly & proactively step-in.

PRIORITIZED IMPLEMENTATION AREAS

The grid plots customer experience drivers on two dimensions:

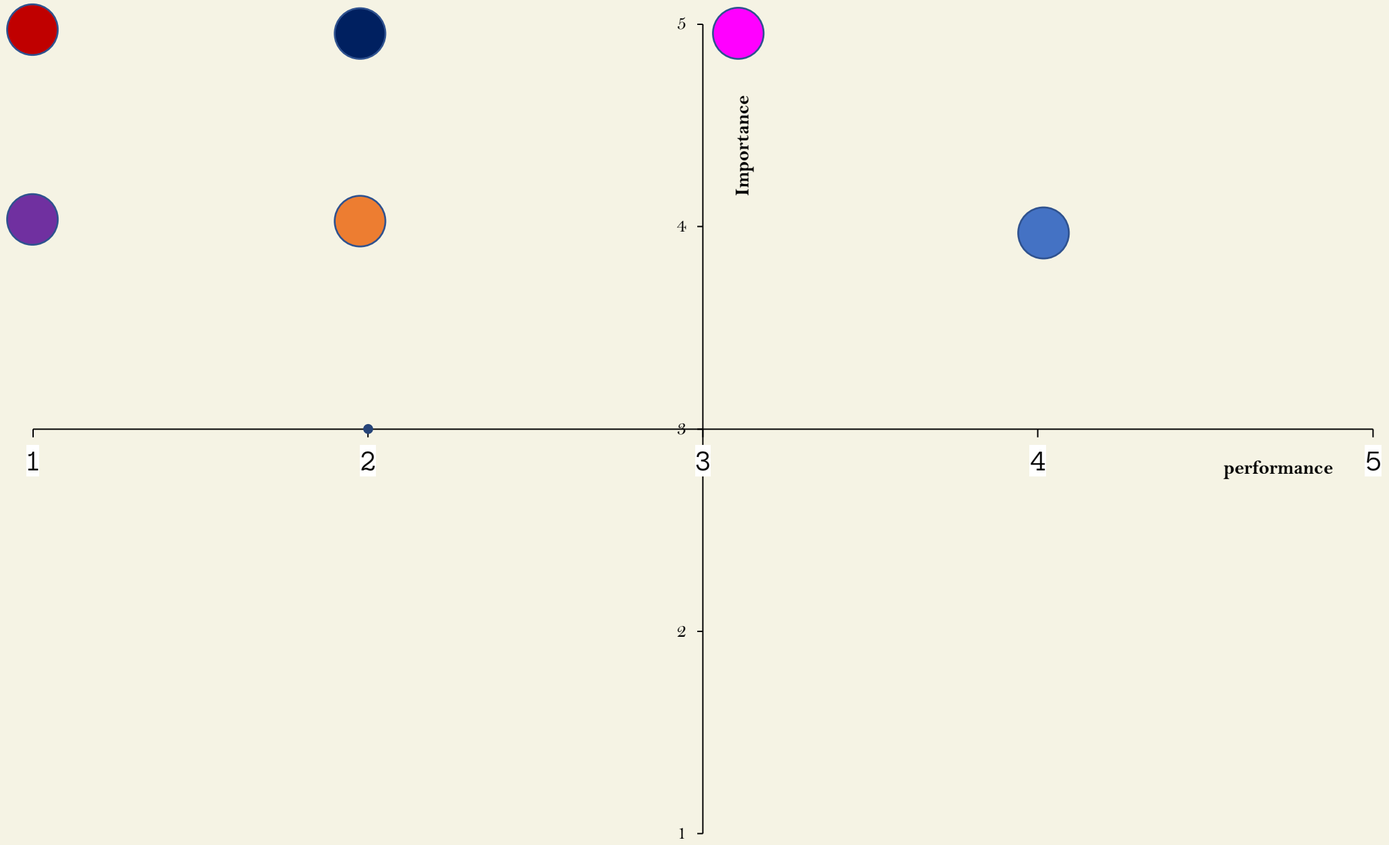

The relative impact of an experienced driver on overall customer attitude and behavior, customer perception of the brand's performance on that experienced driver.

It gives brands a strategic framework within which to debate and evolve an action-direction for each experience driver in their customers' journey with them.

The White Glove

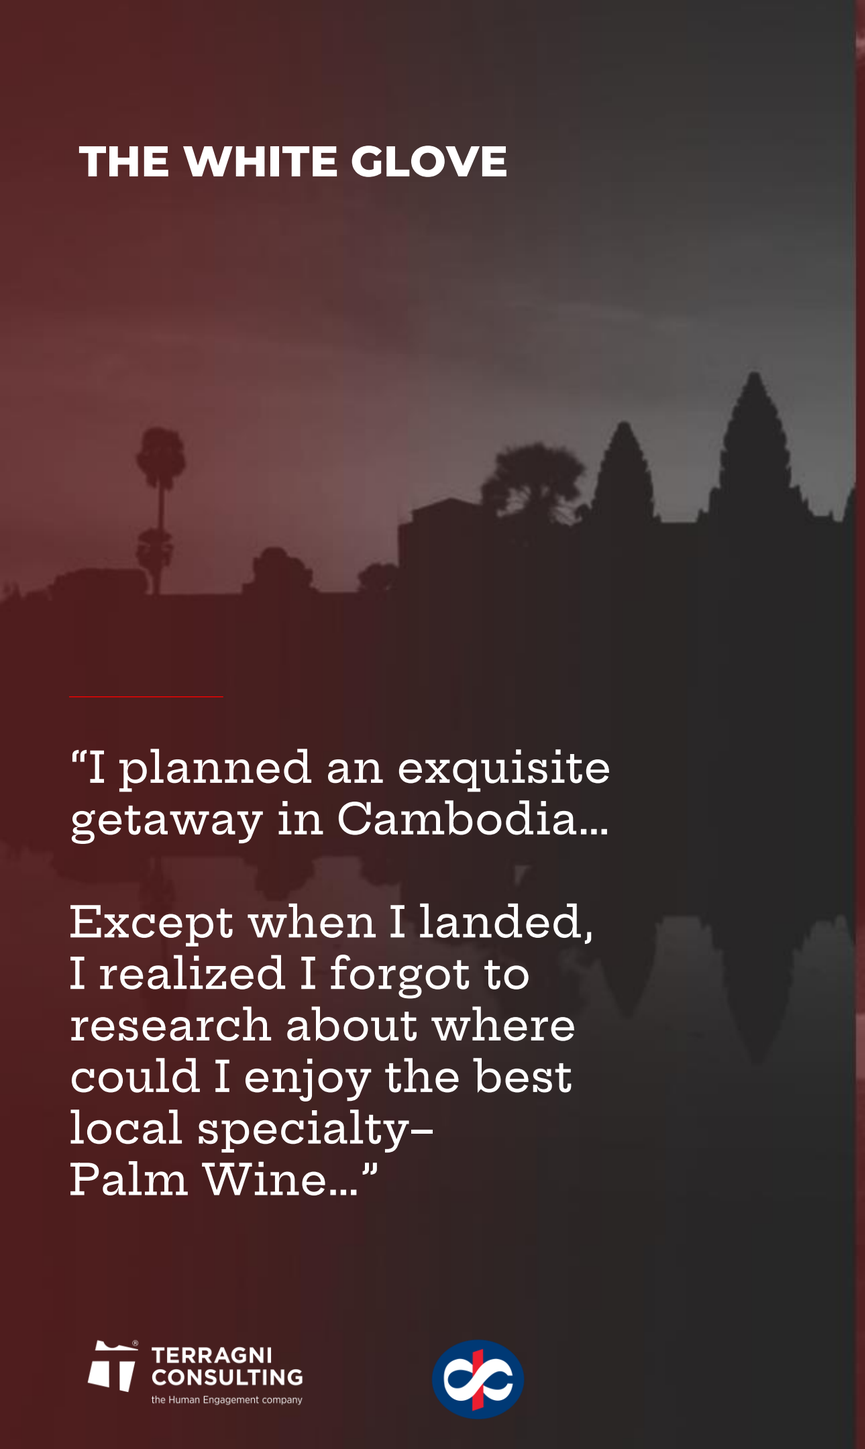

THE WHITE GLOVE

A concierge program that continually aligns to customers' functional & emotional context & experiential expectations

"I planned an exquisite getaway in Cambodia...

Except when I landed, I realized I forgot to research about where could I enjoy the best local specialty– Palm Wine..."

--- I called My Privy Concierge---

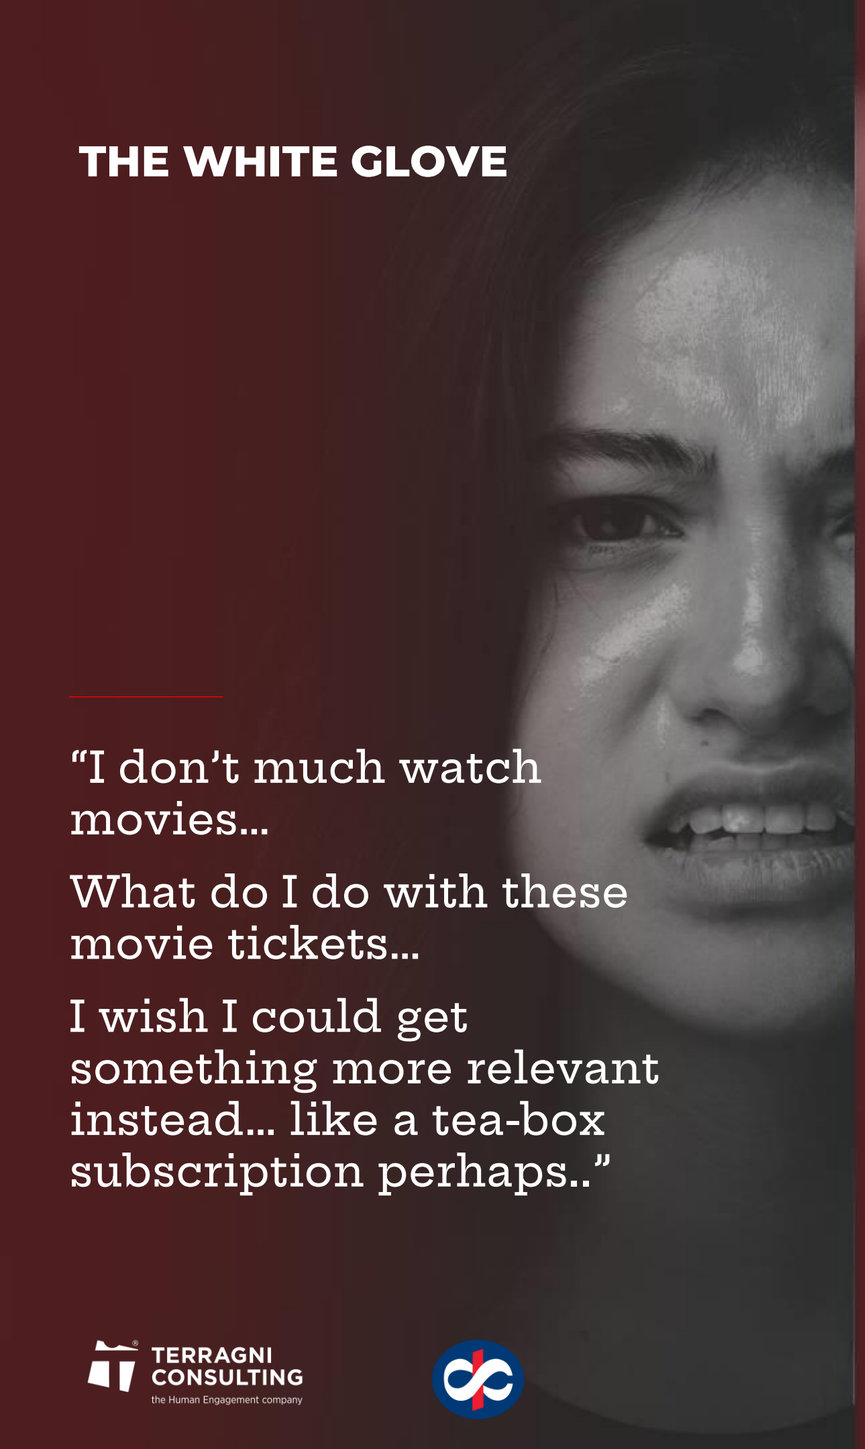

Influencer driven curated Destination Services-travel, cuisine, culture, wellness

Kotak certified premium social media influencers community that Privy League can tap into for verified curated content & recommendations on experiencing destinations that they travel to.

"I don't much watch movies...

What do I do with these movie tickets...

I wish I could get something more relevant instead... like a tea-box subscription perhaps.."

---Let me set this up on My Privy---

My Privy Program – "Configured Benefits"

An exclusive interface that allows the customer "configure" how they would like to use the "The Privy League" – A way to enhance onboarding engagement.

An opportunity for the "Custodian" team to build rapport with the customer. A means for the brand to continuously be aligned with customers' interests.

THE WHITE GLOVE

"Yes, it surely makes my banking easy....

but does Privy really make a difference to my life....

What value do I get out of keeping my money with them...I wonder.."

---Wait... Let me check on My Privy---

Gamified "dashboard" of functional, experiential benefits utilized & accrued

Helps demonstrate the value delivered by The Privy League & also works as a nudge for higher utilization.

THE WHITE GLOVE

"I do track global developments &
I have a good team of researchers...

but we may always miss some details....

a third perspective would always be nice..."

SERVICE RECOVERY

A structured, systematic and empowered approach to post-facto address customer fulfilment process failures & stress points to prevent subsequent & future engagement breakdown

Even the best laid processes & journeys fail.
What matters is recovering in manner that

- Minimizes impact on customer engagement
- Drives positive word-of-mouth
- Does not cause the brand to loose money

The key to service recovery is to focus on moments of high emotional arousal (Peaks) and guarding against negative biases that could set in

Design Analysis; with Solutions

IMAGE

Disconnect in the Image

Emphasize the symbolic value

-Functional value emanates from the features and the potential uses of the brand

-Symbolic value on the other hand emanates from the social standing of the brand, that is, the extent to which the brand is perceived as being an elite offering aspired by the customers.
(Martin Roll, 5 Steps to build A Strong Luxury Brand)

TYPOGRAPHY

Budget Typography

Premium Typography

-Uptight and Loaded typography signals a Budget offering
-Spacious, Light & Airy typography signals a Premium offering

SPACE

Congested Composition

Increase Negative Space

-Negative Space is the most crucial aspect of luxury signalling as it shows the ability to afford space
-When designing, let the elements breate comfortably

Problem

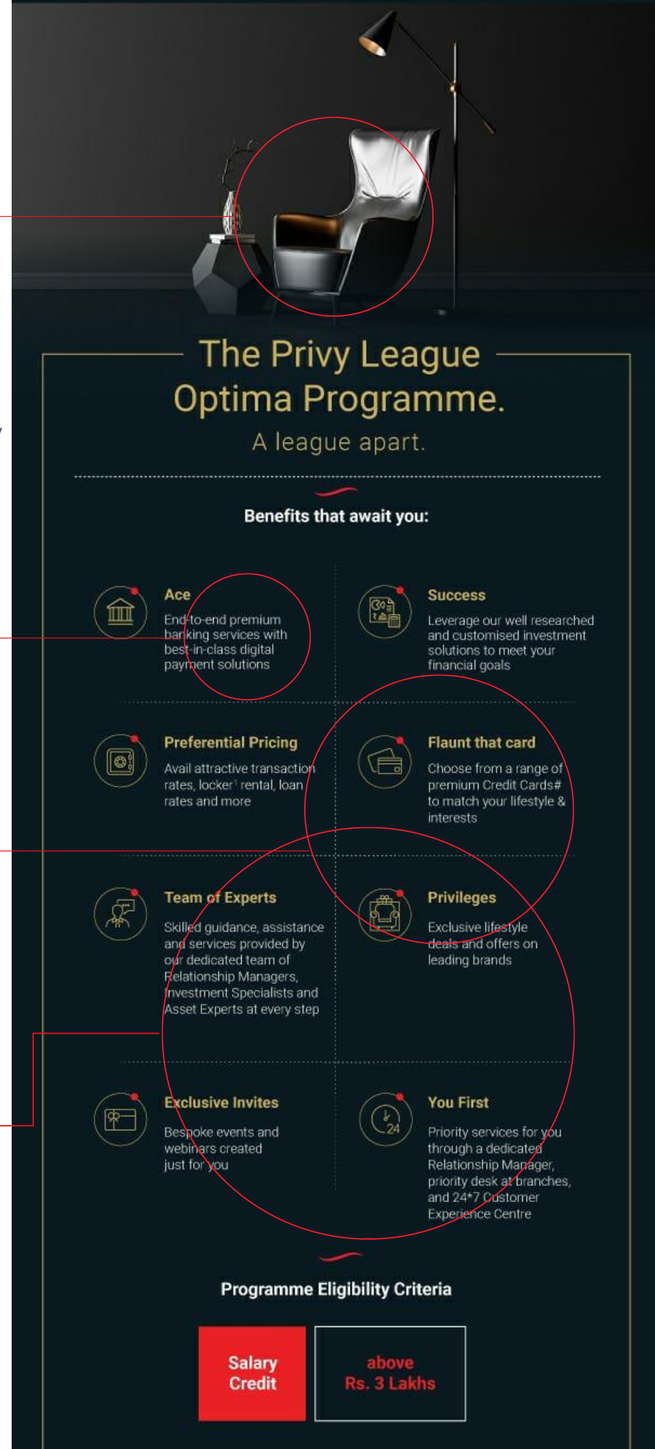

Reccomendation

CONTENT

Content Heavy

Condense The Content

-Subtract content until it breaks
-Omit needless things
-To be perceived as luxurious “Less is More”

Behaviour Insights

Authority Bias:
Greater importance given to the insights of experts compared to laymen.

Barnum effect:
Customers believe that a product is customized just for them which can increase customer buy in and loyalty.

Illusion of Control:
Due to the natural desire to have control, individuals overestimate the amount of control that they have in situations.
