A Terragni Case Study

Leading Bank Leverages Experiential Segments

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

India's 2nd largest private bank

1600

Branches

15,00,000

Customers Pan India

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

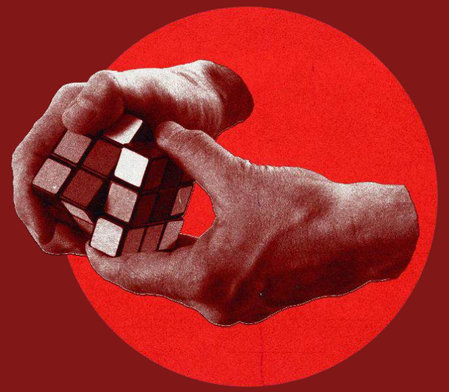

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Increasing wallet share and word-of-mouth of the affluent program

Driving customer engagement

Increasing revenue through use of services

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

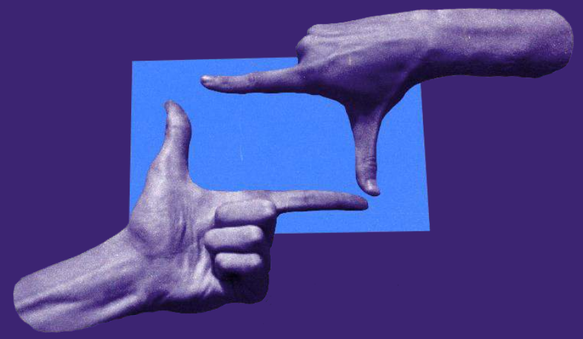

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Customer and Competitor Insight to help drive higher customer engagement for existing and potential customers through

Contextual differentiation from
-the competition and
-within the existing overall customer segment

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Insights into:

How do customers perceive current experiences

What experiences do they seek

How do customers differ in their experiential expectations

How does ease of engagement impact customer loyalty

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Qualitative Insights

Phenomenological in-depth interactions for episodic recall: 19 Interactions,

50 hours of interview transcripts

1

2

3

Quantitative Insights

15,00,000 customers Records

–

3 Years Time Span

Consumer Neuroscience Based Widespan Assessment

500,000 customers, 230+ respondents

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

The affluent program delivers hassle-free banking

“Indian Brand”- A key contributor to emotional engagement that can be leveraged more strongly

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Experientially not perceived to deliver on elements of Identity & Social Dimensions

“Relationship Manager” not effective either in support or service recovery

A breakdown on the basic expectation of friction free financial transactions disengages the customer from the entire program

Awareness levels of program benefits very low, benefits not perceived as relevant

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Experiential segmentation

4 different experiential segment based on customer’s inclination to invest own time in wealth and financial product and customer’s wealth management capability

Client Background
Challenge
Objective
What We Did
Strengths
Opportunities
Segments
Solutions
Business Outcomes

- ☆Self Made Tycoon
- ☆Steel Grey
- ☆PSB Migrant
- ☆Mature Professionals
- ☆Emerging Professionals

Client Background
Challenge
Objective
What We Did
Strengths
Opportunities
Segments
Solutions
Business Outcomes

☆Steel Grey

Retired ex-CXOs / owners of Medium Businesses / Enterprises

Not in active work-life, but involved in advisory capacity

Looking to consolidate & maintain wealth

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Segments

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

Redesigned communications to remove perceived friction

Redesigned internal processes for better service recovery

Created signature differentiated experiences based on customer segments

Redesigned RM program using insights from experiential segments

Client Background

Challenge

Objective

What We Did

Strengths

Opportunities

Segments

Solutions

Business Outcomes

- Increased Wallet Share
- Increased Customer Acquisition through recommendation
- Increased Customer Retention

www.terragni.in www.buyerbrain.com

Thank You

dipti@terragni.in

+91 89569 82522